

PROTECT COLORADO FARMWORKERS

The Colorado Senate is Planning

TO ROLL BACK OVERTIME

for agricultural workers in Colorado:

SENATE BILL 26-121

would RAISE the overtime threshold to 56 HOURS A WEEK, which would damage worker health and increase economic inequality.

Agricultural workers labor in dangerous conditions and they deserve protections to reduce workplace injuries and support their well-being.

What can you do?

Tell lawmakers to protect the rights of Colorado's agricultural workers.

Agricultural workers do long hours of hard physical work to put food on all of our tables.
